May the flame of your youth never die but burn always.

The sense of wonder and adventure is given to us as children. May you keep it forever, and with it that which seeks the gold beyond the rainbow, the dawn beyond the horizon, the light beyond the dark.

Keep your power to receive everything; only learn to select what you think is right.

Keep your love of life, and throw away your fear of death. Life must be loved or it is lost.

Keep your delight in friendship, only learn to know your friends.

Keep your wonder at great and noble things like sunlight and stars, the wind and the sea, thunder and rain, and the greatness of heroes.

Keep your heart hungry for new knowledge; keep your hatred of a lie and keep your power of indignation.

All our dandelion days are done and so we'll run the fields no more in search of wild roses that grow out on the moor.

All our dandelion days are done and so we'll turn our heads away from every silvery morning and every golden day.

But sweet September's open arms belong to us and will help us thru for silvery mornings and golden days hide underneath the dew

All our dandelion days are done but yet we'll run the fields some more for all the wild roses have not withered on the moor

We look to our friends and remember the smiles We look to the sky and ponder our existence We look to our past and see how we've grown

We look to the future and see room for changes We look into our hearts and see we can change We look into ourselves and find that we are free

If you think you are beaten, you are If you think you dare not, you don't If you want to win but you think you can't It is almost a cinch you won't If you think you'll lose, you've lost For in the world we find Success begins with your will It's all in the state of mind

If you think you're outclassed, you are,
 You've got to think high to rise, You've got to be sure of yourself before You can ever win the prize.
 Life's battles don't always go To the stronger or faster one,
 But sooner or later the one who wins,
 Is the one who thinks he can.

Memories

Memories of a forgotten past Memories of days that didn't last Memories of my mind and me Memories of ideas and promises that can never be Memories of people we came to know Memories of friends and loves we had to let go

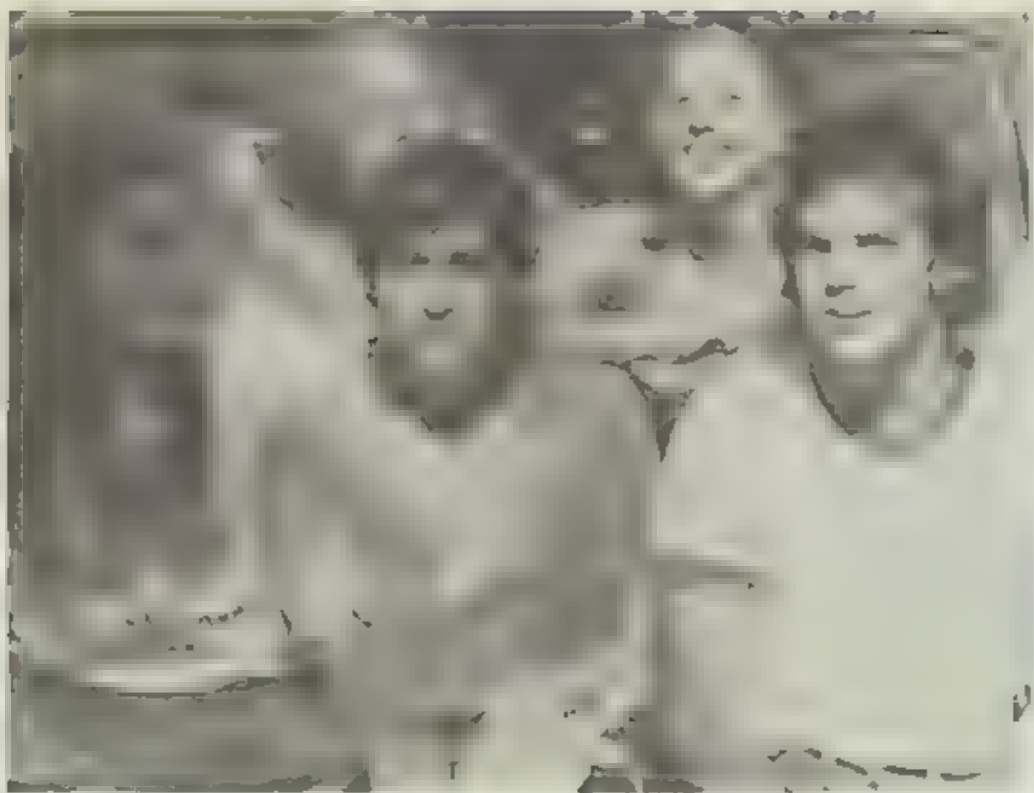

Memories can get you down, but remember the happy times and smile; don't frown Remember all the places you went, Remember the good and sad times you spent Memories are all you will know
 Of all the times you had to let go Barb Ford '76

Growing up
Children's laughter
-almost foreign to my ears-rings through the house
No longer is the child laughing, but memories surge the passageways bouncing from one wall to another No longer do I bubble over things not funny, nor do I run and play in over-grown grass

I have stepped from a world of childhood innocence into one of unwelcomed maturity Sometimes, I hear strange murmurings of times, gone by when looking at yellowed pictures, and youthful handwritings
When I hear these muted sounds, I return to times when laughter and crying came easy-all in the same breath

Homecoming of 1975

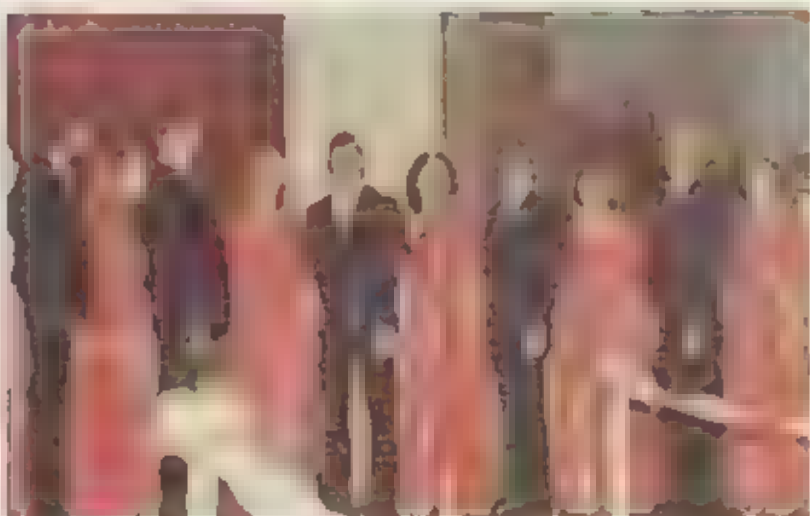

Arlington's fifty-third Homecoming celebration was full of excitement. There were many hours of "World's Record Breaking" float building. Everyone showed their spirit during the week of Homecoming: the frosh in their sunglasses, the sophs in their hats, the juniors in inside-out clothes, and last but not least, the seniors in bathrobes! There was also a color day, Hot Lips and Mr Flex contests and many other events. Fremd was artistically decorated with toilet paper, posters, etc. by spirited seniors the night before the game. Then coronation, the parade, the car caravan, the game and dance ended the irreplaceable moments of Homecoming 1975

Cards Keep Pace With A Homecoming Victory

Wearing red and white, the excited fans filled the stands quickly. On a football field decked with red and white balloons, the mighty Cards took and held an early lead against the Fremd Vikings by playing a rough and tumble game.

The half time festivities included the Cardettes twirling fire, the band playing, and a parade of the winning floats. The winning score was Arlington 22, Fremd 7.

Homecoming Dance '75 A Night to Remember

Corn stalks and jack-o-lanterns set the atmosphere for this year's Homecoming Dance held in the Grace Gym on Saturday, October 19, 1975. The dance, sponsored by the "A" Club, concluded the week of Homecoming festivities

Suits, formals, flowers, lively music, romantic dances, and dinner made the evening a wonderful ending for the 1975 theme of "Record-Breaking Homecoming"

History Goes on Display During Bicentennial Day

Arlington, in the true spirit of the Bicentennial, held a Bicentennial Day and Dance on Friday, February 13 and 14. The Ball, sponsored by the Sophomore Class, included a day of dressing up in any style from the 1700's to the present day, and then a dance on Saturday in the Grace Gym.

Faculty and students alike got into the spirit and in the school there were resemblances of American revolutionists, frontiersmen, and hippies of the 60's.

Teenyboppers Be-bop at The Hop at 50's Dance

Dresses below the knee, baggy pants, curly mops, D.A.'s and bobby socks was the scene for the '75 Fifties Day and Dance. Students and teachers went bebopping down Arlington corridors to the classic tunes of the times. The lunch hour was highlighted by a hoola-hoop contest in which many participated. After school a dance clinic was held for those who wanted to win the jitterbug contest at the dance that evening. The band featured was Jade and said to be the cat's pajamas

Last Spring's Prom, "We May Never Pass This Way Again", was like an ancient fairy tale come true

Once upon a time in a town named Arlington it was decided that a ball should be held at the Royal Palace (Algauer's Fireside Inn) on the evening of May 23, 1975, beginning at eight and ending at the stroke of midnight. It would be a night of dining, dancing and fun. Everyone made special arrangements because this was going to be no ordinary ball. The knights shined their armor while the fair maidens anxiously awaited the arrival of their enchanting princes. The night of the ball came and it was all everyone thought it would be. Everyone was dressed in their very best. The ball was a great success, everyone had a wonderful time and lived happily ever after.

“Matchmaker” Mixes Marriages and Madcap

“Matchmaker,” a comedy by Thornton Wilder, was brought to life in the Bristol Theatre March 20, 21, and 22. It starred Joan Ramsey as Dolly Levi; the vivacious and bustling matchmaker of Yonkers, New York, and the part of the vain and choleric Horace Vandergelder was played by Charles Constantino

The play opens with Horace Vandergelder employing a matchmaker, a woman that subsequently gets involved with his two menial clerks, assorted young ladies, a florid and stout lady of 50, and the head waiter of an expensive restaurant where this swift farce runs into an hilarious climax of suspense, complications and laughs

Off to Never - Never Land in Spring Musical

"Peter Pan", The spring musical, was a smashing hit with the large audiences that came to see it. The success of the show was due to the expert coaching talents of Miss Stavaros and Mr. Pugsley, used on an excellent cast, but the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Schmoyer, added the final touch of listening pleasure to this outstanding show. Technical aspects of the production were handled by Mr. Friel and his crew; without them, flying would have been impossible. They deserve all the credit for not shattering children's faith in the fairy dust. With a gang of tough pirates led by Captain Hook, a tribe of painted Indians, a bunch of Lost Boys, and a various animals to back them up, how could Peter Pan, brave and true, and the Darlings go wrong

A.H.S. Relives the Past Thru "Devil's Disciple"

In keeping with the Bicentennial spirit, Arlington presented "The Devil's Disciple" for this year's fall play. The play, written by George Bernard Shaw, depicts early days of the Revolutionary War in the colonies. Directed by Mr. Murphy, it was presented the week end of October 31st in the Bristol Theatre.

"Harvey" this year's Winter Play filled the Bristol Theatre with people and laughter, as it has been doing for the last thirty years. The play starred Rick Mensch as the pleasant and light-hearted Elwood P. Dowd, Melanie Gersh as his cynical sister, and of course, Harvey, who played himself. Students Display Their "Americanvas" Talent

"Americanvas," a depiction of America from past to present, was the theme of this year's talent show. It dealt with contemporary as well as historical acts that occurred during our country's 200 years as a nation. Before each act a slide was shown representing the period of history it illustrated.

Directed by Mr. Charles Hardy, "Americanvas" presented acts from as far back as Betsy Ross to the most recent Sonny and Cher duo. These and many other scenes were performed December 4, 5, and 6 1975.

There is more to cheerleading than jumping and yelling. This year's five cheerleading squads work hard all year long to promote spirit and enthusiasm; not only to the teams, but to the entire student body. It's hard to be all the things that are expected of a cheerleader and still be individual. Arlington's cheerleaders can do both.

Arlington's "Cardinal" Tells News Like It Is

The "Cardinal", under the supervision of their advisor, Ms. Herlien, had another good year. The Editor-in-Chief of the paper this year was Ellen Nicholson. She was supported by the other editors and a hard working staff.

During the year the "Cardinal" is published twice a month; this year the staff also included special editions at Christmas and the annual senior edition made by the senior staff, and who published it in the first week of June

"Heights" Editors Are Out of Their Trees!!

People Make "Heights" We Write It All Down

In order to have a decent yearbook, a lot of hardworking and understanding people are needed. Mr. Boesel, the advisor, is one of those people. He, along with the staff and editors, have had to go through a lot to make this year's book a good one. The year has been a long and hard one, but everyone managed to keep their sense of humor during many difficult times. After all, putting people and personalities down on paper isn't very easy

Arlington Footballers End with 7-2 Standing

In the third year under the coaching of Mr. Haines, Arlington placed second in conference with a 7-2 overall and a 4-2 conference record.

Seniors Mike Schell and Phil Dimelli were injured during the season. The offense team was seniors Matt Shaughnessy, Wayne Eisenhuth, Tom Toffoli and junior Tom North. Anchoring the defense were seniors Tom Berryman, Kirk Kennedy, Don Stebbins and junior Jason Slazek

The season ended with five all-conference players and the seventh best record in Arlington's football history

Cross Country Canters To a Conference 5th

Cross Country ran over their opponents this season to end with a conference record of three wins and two losses. This record gave them fifth place in the conference. The team coached to victory by Mr. Samore, also captured tenth place in the District contest. The team was headed by Jack Kelly and Dave Ericson.

Who Is Number One? A.H.S.'s Tennis Team

This year's girls' tennis team finished first in the Mid-Suburban Conference. They also placed fifteenth in the state meet, which Arlington High hosted during October. There were many fine players on this year's team. They included singles player Leslie Grabitz and the doubles team of Maureen Coleman and Mary Flynn, who played in the State tournament

Helping the girls along this season were Ms. Mary Lou Hundt, head coach, and newcomer Mr. Brodnan. The junior-varsity team was also an addition this season

Girls' Cross Country— A Newly Formed Team

Arlington High School's Girl's Athletics took another step forward with the start of a brand new Cross Country team. Coached by Miss Jayne, the team, which consisted of five sophomore girls Becky Ivan, Cindy Melker, Lisa Lille, Sue Mausaus and all-star runner Polly Miner, had a fine season, beating Buffalo Grove in one of their eight meets. Now that Girls' Cross Country is in full swing, the girls are looking forward to next season, which will test this year's diligent preparation.

No "Jaws" Can Scare A.H.S. Tough Tankers

Coached by Mrs. Murdoch, this year's Girl's swimming team had a very productive season. They posted seven victories and only one loss for a record that placed them a close second in the conference and also in the district. Outstanding performances were made by swimmers Sue Cripe and Wendy Meyers. The team is looking forward to next year and another season of hard work.

Cardinal Swimmers Make a Big Splash

Well, they did it again! The 1976 Swimming team kept up that marvelous tradition and captured the Conference title. The team was again under the great coaching staff of Mr. Anderson and Mr. Lave. This year's superstars included Steve Nowack and his butterfly, diver Glenn Seaman, the Roessler brothers and Steve Nitch, hot on the heels of his older brother and the state qualifying relay team of Nitch, Hahn, Nowack and Zawadski. Congrats for another fine year.

Grapplers Wrestle Their Way to a Great Year

Behind the skilled coaching of head coach Jack Cutlip the Card's consistently strong wrestling team wiggled to a fourth place conference finish and an eighth place in the Districts. The team was led by grapplers Dan Weber, John Priessing, and Dan Kennedy, who all finished second in the conference meet. Other outstanding performances were made by senior John Whitnell and sophomore Andy Dickerson. Another successful year.

Cards Fight Hard And Finish In Third Place

Cardinal's Cagers suffered a temporary setback at the start of this season with the loss of Coach Zigman, who had to take a leave of absence because of a heart condition. Under the new coaching staff of Mr. Drain and Mr. Feddema, the team with veteran stars Senior Jim Grandt and Junior Greg Kloiber flourished and finished fifth in the Conference and a proud third in the division by beating Elk Grove by one point in an exciting game.

Fencers "Foil" Their Thrusting Adversaries

Arlington Girls' Fencing team was undefeated for its fourth year. A strong group of returnees and hard work accounted for this. Senior Ellen Bauske had a 12-1 record and Sue Janik was 7-1. Naomi Ivan was another big contributor. Coach Mary Ann Welpton was proud!

Baseball Team Slugs Thru Year as Champs

Coach Somers saw his team thru the best season in years, winning Districts and the North Division.

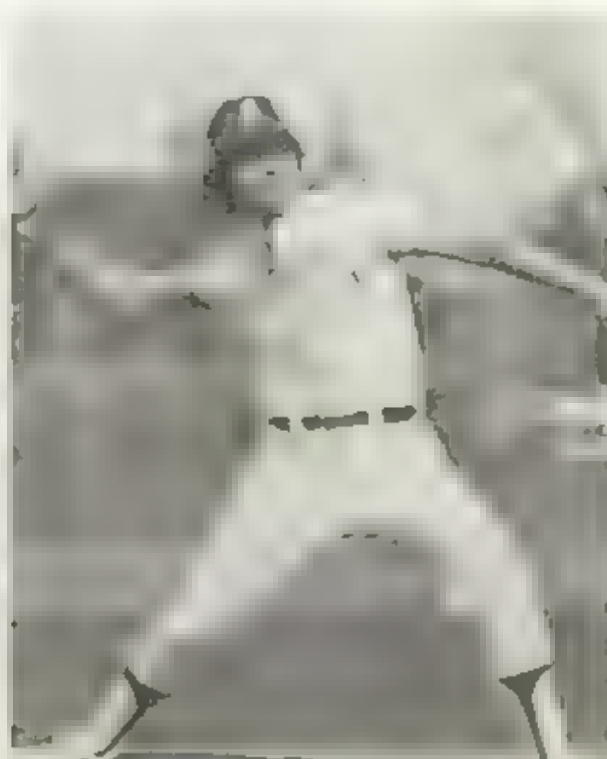

At districts, Arlington easily beat out Hersey when Dar Townsend pitched one of his no hitter games. On up the ladder though, the going got quite a bit harder. Meadows had won the South division and Arlington the North. The two division leaders now had to play a best of three games for the title of conference championship. Meadows got the first game, and though it had its pressures the Cards came back to win the second game when Jr. Rick Purcell ran in off an infield hit with bases loaded. The championship all depended on the third game, and with a close score Meadows barely edged out Arlington, who had produced 5 all conference men

Card Trackmen Streak Thru Another Season

Last year's track team ended the season with a record of three wins and seven losses. Showing a reservoir of potential talent, many of the sophomores and the juniors from last year's team will return this year bringing with them an entire season of hard-earned experience.

The team's head coach was Mr. Samoore; assistant coaches were Mr. Markshaussen and Mr. Ray. Many went to the districts and placed; among them were Dimelli, Narup, Walsworth, and Dcolenjeck. These boys and the team received many favorable comments.

Cards "Net" Opponents And Win Conference

Another super tennis team whipes away all their opponents and boosts up the overall record of wins to 95 consecutive victories. Naturally, the team also placed first in conference and districts. They then proceeded to capture fourth place in state. Top singles players on the Varsity team were Paul Wei, John Yeazel, and John Walner. First doubles consisted of Peter Burkhardt and Luke Weeg. Nice going super team, another good year

Arlington's Track Team Takes Off With Style

Girl's track team, besides having a successful season this year, also showed much potential for seasons to come, with a strong lot of freshman runners. Coached by Miss Jayne, the swift and powerful team finished second in the conference. They also sent many girls to the district meet and Mary Cormier and Sandy Norman went to the state competition held in Peoria.

This year's Girl's Softball Team had a good season overall. The girls had a 2-win, 5-loss record in conference. Among many of the outstanding players was all-conference nominee Patty Pinsky, Arlington's fine first baseman. Pitcher for the cardinals was Vickie Dale. She gave a fine performance during the season. Ms. Welpton and Ms. Swanson were very pleased with the girl's accomplishments as well as the growth of the team.

Let him step to the music he hears.

—Henry David Thoreau

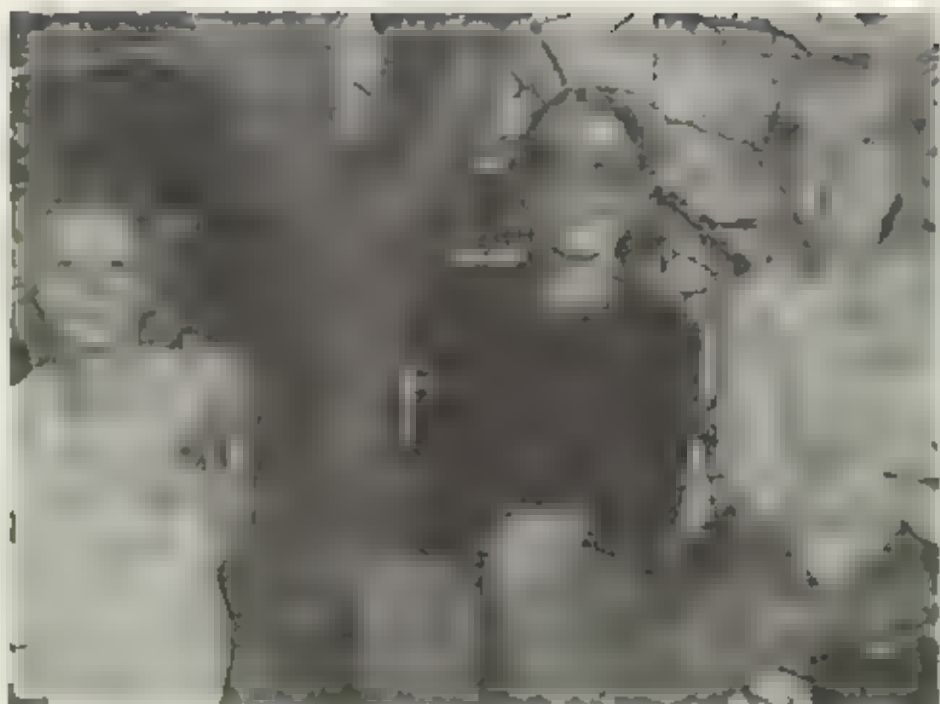

Individuals

'Who are you?' they asked
 'Who am I?' I thought
 I'm not always happy,
 I'm not always sad
 The wind touches my cheek lifting me up to the inside of a rainbow where I see billions of prism-like crystals showering around me I slide down into a whirlpool of colored leaves beside still blue water As my feet come to rest gently on the ground
 I smile and answer
 'I am me.'

Seniors

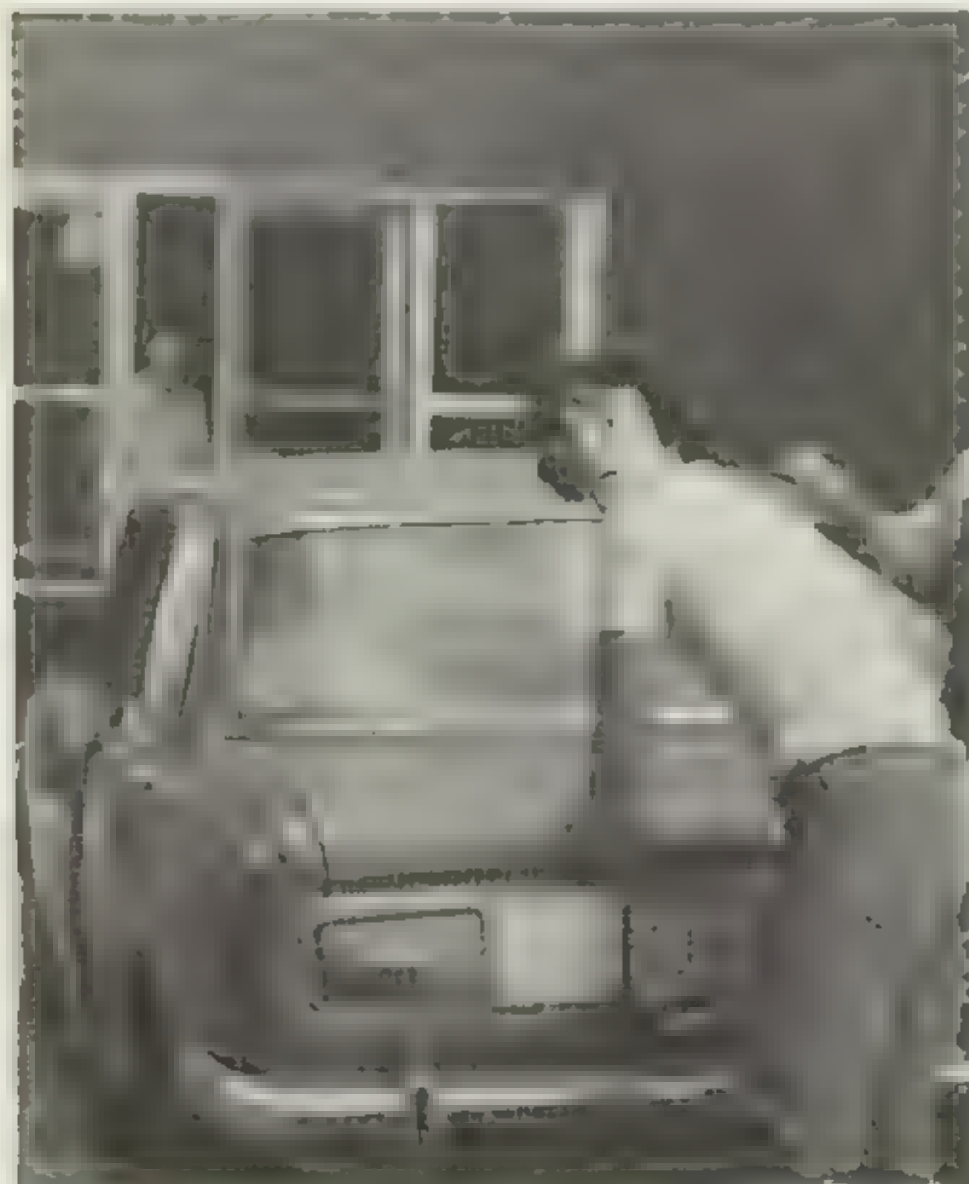

Class Board officers, (pictured above): President, Barb Herdreich; Vice-President, Lori Schroeder; Secretary, Linda Nystrom; Treasurer, Maria Budin did their best to keep the Senior class together. Senior ditch-day, water balloon fights eventful picnics and many other activities made everyone much closer. Through the years, faces and people may change, but the seniors can never forget the good times, each other, of the "Spirit of '76."

As the years grow on us we find that growing up is also growing away. With each new song we learn there is one that fades away with new friends we meet we begin to forget the old. And the few days we feel with time-for we every today yesterday dies and we find that growing up is also growing away.

Juniors

Junior class officers (pictured above) for 1975-1976 are Tom North, President; Jeanne Johnson, Vice-President; Sue Lestico, Secretary; and Kris Raino, Treasurer. The juniors had a busy year including sponsoring the 50's Day and Dance in November. The dance has become an annual event. Another junior accomplishment was winning first place for the best Homecoming float. Last of all, Prom '76 was a great way to finish off the year.

It was a successful year for the sophomores. In between Geometry tests and Acting lessons they had time to make a second place float and sponsor a Bicentennial Ball, a costume dance which was held in February.

Freshmen

Freshman class, headed by (Above) Margaret Nordyke, Paul Bergeson, Debbie Moline, and Angelo Valdes, started their first high school year at Arlington with an excellent Kick-off Dance. Despite offers to buy elevator tickets, the Frosh found their way around Arlington quickly. They were an enthusiastic class and turned out a Homecoming float that showed their hard work. The class of 1979 ended the year with a tremendous Turn About Dance, in the Grace Gym on Saturday March 14.

A handwritten musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. The score is written on ten staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style. The lyrics 'The Rose Tree' are written below the first staff. The score continues with several more staves, each with its own line of lyrics. The handwriting is in ink and appears to be from a 19th-century manuscript.

For Ted "Otto" Wittehoef-

Painted Cheeks
Hundred dollar suit
Polished bronze box
We pay homage
To a hollow body
An empty shell
And we cry
For ourselves Because we never took the time to tell him how much we loved him
And because we must face a world which has grown a little darker
And a little more cold
He gently smiles
And waits for us to come home

-Paul Seevers '76

In Memorium

For John P. Furlong-

Words can never explain the emptiness we feel because of the missing smile that used to light our way But death is not in vain because it teaches us of life, Of how each second can show the love we feel is we only take the time to touch each other the way John touched us

-D. B. '76

This Is How It All Began

There are many things that can be said about this book but the words have been used before, some in captions, some in headlines, and some in the pictures. All there is left to do is say thank you to the people who helped us put the book together. We would like to thank Root Photos for the picture on page 174, "Cardinal" for supplying photos, and Ed Ebel for "Peter Pan" pictures. We would also like to thank photographers Bill Hansen and Jan Seltzer for their camera work in emergency situations. Of course we want to express our appreciation to our staff who had to wait patiently for us to get organized and then run their tails off to help make the deadlines. Last, we would like to thank Mr. Boesel, our advisor, whose guidance was always there, and Mr. Morehead our Campus and Walsworth representative. Well, so long and waco

And This Is How It All Ends

In 200 years, the United States has come a long way. In our four years at Arlington, we've come a long way too. We've experienced, grown, laughed and cried, just as our country has and we're better people for it

It is to our country and to our four years of high school life that we dedicate the 200 pages of this book. The experiences are reduced to only pictures now, but with these pictures go the memories, and with the memories goes hope for the future; enough hope to last another 200 years

The Editors

1. The first part of the paper is a review of the literature on the topic. It discusses the various methods used to study the effects of stress on the immune system, and the results of these studies.
